

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, South Dakota is proud of its Chambers of Commerce for their efforts in making our cities balanced communities and better places in which to live and work, and;

WHEREAS, South Dakota Chambers of Commerce have taken an active part in all phases of our community development and have been in the forefront of innumerable worthwhile civic projects undertaken in South Dakota cities, and;

WHEREAS, our Chambers of Commerce have championed the free enterprise system, encouraged private initiative and provided the organizational framework necessary to make the business community an effective partner in civic, cultural, economic and educational activities.

FURTHER, those of us in government have benefitted by the counsel of the Chambers when matters of common interest have been under consideration.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, NILS A. BOE, GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF SOUTH DAKOTA, in appreciation of the contributions made by South Dakota Chambers of Commerce do hereby proclaim the week of April 2-9, 1967, as-- in South Dakota, and, in issuing this proclamation, call upon all our citizens, organizations and institutions to recognize this special week and to join in its observance.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota at Pierre, the Capital City, this 30th day of March, in the year of our Lord, nineteen hundred and sixty-seven.

Nils A. Boe
